Town Close School is situated in the heart of the city on a beautiful 15 acre site, including 10 acres of conservation woodland.

We seek an enthusiastic and well-qualified

Head of Swimming Required from 31st March 2025

Make a splash by leading our school's swimming programme and building an inclusive community swim school! This dynamic role combines delivering tailored lessons for pupils of all ages with creating a thriving swim school that brings people together. From inspiring young swimmers to organising exciting inter-school galas, you'll be at the heart of developing confidence, teamwork, and a love for the water.

Beyond the school, you'll establish and grow a community swim school that welcomes children and adults at all skill levels. With your leadership, this programme will promote health, connection, and lifelong swimming skills.

Further information, including a job description and details of the application process, may be obtained from townclose.com

Closing date for applications: Thursday 13th February 2025 at 4.00pm
Interviews: week commencing Monday 24th February 2025
