Dear Parents

Celt and Roman Visit

On Wednesday 29th November the Year 4 pupils will be spending a very exciting day in the company of Vulpus, the Roman gladiator, as part of our history topic.

The day is based around Celtic and Roman culture and customs, providing a valuable insight into the Celtic and Roman way of life. Throughout the day the pupils work in supervised groups to participate in a range of activities to further their understanding of this period of history.

To add to the excitement and authenticity of the day we are asking the pupils to come to school dressed as a Celt or Roman and have included some guidelines to help with the making of costumes, though this is by no means definitive. Due to the nature of the activities on the day, we ask that the costumes are both practical and child-friendly!

We look forward to an educational, fun and action-packed day and our previous visits from 'Portals to the Past' have always proved to be popular with the children.

Should you have any queries about the day please speak to your child's form teacher. Many thanks in advance for your help in making the costume for your child.

Yours sincerely

Naomi Webb, Lizzy Reeves, Maxine Rushton
