Dear Parents

'My Fair Lady' Norwich High School for Girls, Tuesday 5th December

I have been invited to take a group of children to Norwich High School to watch a matinee performance of their senior production of 'My Fair Lady' on Tuesday 5th December.

I have chosen to take Year 7 as they have made a very positive impression upon Mrs Chitty and me as their form teachers and we feel that this is a well-deserved treat! It will also provide further insight into musical theatre for those children in Year 7 who may be considering taking part in Town Close's next musical, when they will be in Year 8.

There is no cost for this performance and it will take place within school time. Children will be informed of the arrangements, but it is all very simple! We will walk across together after lunch and return in time for the end of the school day. Children must bring any medication they require with them (such as asthma inhalers) and I also advise that they bring a rain coat to school in case of inclement weather.

I am thoroughly looking forward to this performance and I am sure the children will find it to be a valuable experience. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely
