

Using apostrophes for possession (a)

An apostrophe (') and an s can be used to show that an object belongs to something or someone. Write the missing nouns in these sentences and remember the 's! An example is done for you.

1. This boy's football shirt is green.

2. An ..... trunk is very long.

3. We saw the ..... balloon up in the tree.

4. Mum found ..... glasses in the garden.

Using apostrophes for possession

5. Mr Walker is the ..... headmaster.

school

6. A ..... cry can be very loud.

baby

7. John heard the ..... engine as it zoomed off.

car

8. Our ..... name is Sooty and she has black fur.

cat

9. We all saw ..... goal at the end of the match.

Ruby